promote good governance of migration and mobility, as well as the protection of the rights of migrants in the ECOWAS region, in order to increase the benefits of migration and mobility on development.

These objectives are achieved through an in-depth three-year work (2017-2020) on six pilot countries, namely Burkina Faso, Ghana, Guinea, Senegal, Sierra Leone and Togo, on three pillars:

- The implementation of the ECOWAS Free Movement Protocol;
- Respect for the rights of migrant workers originating from West Africa; and
- Maximizing the contribution of diaspora to the development of countries of origin.

2. Purpose and Scope of the Assignment

Under the supervision of the MADE West Africa, the selected consultant will draft an overview of the implementation of SDGs 8.7, 10.7 and 10.c in the West African context and the indicators adopted for the same SDGs at regional and global level. The planned research will conduct a critical analysis and develop further indicators.

These indicators will be used for the development of short annual progress review documents for the implementation of:

- SDG 8.8 in the case of Senegal and Guinea
- SDG 10.7 in the case of Ghana and Sierra Leone
- SDG 10.c Burkina Faso, Ghana, Sierra Leone and Togo

These annual progress review documents will be done by partner organisations themselves with the exception of ICMC which will work in collaboration with expert consultants based in the target countries to review progress of Guinea and Senegal in achieving SDG 8(8).

They will be presented and shared on the occasion of the Global Forum on Migration and Development (Morocco in December 2018), which role in monitoring the implementation of the migration-related targets of the Agenda 2030 is becoming key. In addition, progress will also be presented on the occasion of the High-Level Dialogue on International Migration and Development in 2019 in New York.

At the regional/sub-regional level, progress reviews will be shared with ECOWAS and at other relevant regional and sub-regional events. At the national level, progress reviews will be shared with concerned governments and with civil society organisations to strengthen their advocacy messages in that regard.

3. Output

The selected consultant will produce a (maximum) 25 page document which will be easily readable and usable for civil society organisations to develop annual review documents to support advocacy work in the region by civil society organisations and more generally the activities of MADE West Africa in the development of an advocacy roadmap in the three topics the project engage on.

The selected consultant will also take into account the previous work implemented by the MADE programme on SDGs and migration and its attempts to develop further indicators. See for instance: Stockholm Agenda on migrant and migration-related goals and targets in post 2015 global and national development agendas and Migration and SDGs implementation. The real challenge starts now. ICMC Europe will make all the relevant documents available to the selected candidate.
- Inform MADE West Africa project manager on the progress of the drafting of the paper to discuss consistency with the objective of the study.
